

Still Falling

Hunter Hayes

You would think for all the days I've known you that I would have you memorized by now with every question answered, every single page turned but you just keep me on the edge somehow every day with you is still a mystery The sweetest stories falling from your lips and I hold on to every world, like it's the first one that I've heard It's the only time I've ever felt like this

After all this time you'd think I'd be used to the pull of your gravity
After flying so high for so long, who would think I'm still learnin', still burnin', still fallin'

Still fallin'

I still reach for your hand because I need it Your kiss is still the spark that lights a fire you're still laughin' with me, we're still making memories, I'm still a fool for you, there's a million reasons why

After every late night street light drive Every love you miss you kiss good night Girl, your name is still my favorite always will be and I'm still wantin', still all in, I'm still f allin'

Still fallin',
Still chasin', still nervous, still reelin', dreamin' about thi s

After every sunrise holding you, after all the crazy we've been through Every day and every minute girl it's something new, I'm still l earning Still burnin', still wantin', still all in, still fallin'

Still falling.
