

Wait

Hunter Hayes

Maybe you'll be back in the summer
Maybe you'll be back in the spring
Leaves start to fall
And you call and we talk
But the seasons haven't changed anything

You said you haven't found what you wanted
All I've ever wanted was you
Time's just a game
And it's hard but you play
When you love someone you're too scared to lose

It's alright I can cope
Just as long as you know that I will

Wait for you
Forever and a day for you
They say loves letting go
But my love only grows the more I
Wait for you
So baby I will, I will wait for you
Oh baby I will, I will wait for you

Maybe missing you is a habit
Maybe that's as good as it gets
In my life there's a space
Nothing else could replace
You're the only thing that I'll never quit

Yeah so, send me a message from somewhere
Or never send a message at all
Oh, doesn't make a difference
No matter the distance
We can reconnect like no time is lost

Know that I've told you so
But I need you to know that I will

Wait for you
Forever and a day for you
They say loves letting go
But my love only grows the more I
Wait for you
So baby I will wait for you
It's just what I was made to do
I know feelings can fade
And promises break, but I will
Wait for you
And baby I will, I will wait for you
Oh baby I will

Every now and every tomorrow
From the moment that I met you I knew
That baby I would

Wait for you
Forever and a day for you

They say loves letting go
But my love only grows the more I
Wait for you
And baby I will wait for you
It's just what I was made to do
I know feelings can fade
And promises break, but I will
Wait for you
Baby I will, I will wait for you
Oh baby I will, I will wait for you

Baby I will
