

Blindsider

Hunter Hunted

I was moving in the fast lane
Living life for the end game
But I just floated by
Oh, I was drifting away
I never saw the inside
Never more than a drive by
So hard to satisfy
Oh, I was drifting away
(Oh, I was drifting away)
Oh, I was drifting away
(Oh, I was drifting away)

Your love just hit me from the blindsider
Didn't see it coming it feels so right
My body's crashing into your high
Your love hit, your love hit
My blindsider
Oh, My blindsider
My blindsider
Oh, My blindsider

My blindsider
My blindsider
My blindsider
My blindsider
My blindsider
My blindsider
Now I never wanna come down
Never wanna have to live without
Your body next to mine
Oh yeah we're drifting away
Smoke is all around us
Such a beautiful chaos you say
Your lips are touching mine
And now we're drifting away
(Oh yeah we're drifting away)
Oh yeah we're drifting away

(Oh yeah we're drifting away)

Your love just hit me from the blindsider
Didn't see it coming it feels so right
My body's crashing into your high
Your love hit, your love hit
My blindsider
Oh, my blindsider
And it couldn't be better
It couldn't be better, better, better, better, better, better
Better, better, better

Better, better, better
Better, better
It couldn't be better
It couldn't be better better, better

Your love just hit me from the blindside
My body's crashing into your high
Your love hit, your love hit
My blindsides
(Your love hit, your love hit)
Oh, my blindsides
(Your love hit, your love hit)
My blindsides
(Your love hit, your love hit)
