Hunter Metts

You wear you best dress now
And we'll go down down down past the trees
Last time you walked with me
You said you'd never leave my body

Open
Why'd you have to leave me open?
Cut me up to keep me broken now
I'm bleeding out
I'm so open
Why'd you have to leave me open?
Sow me up to rip me open now
I'm pouring out

I think you buried me
With every memory under the ground
I feel so heavy
Must be the gravity, I'm so far down

Open
Why'd you have to leave me open?
Cut me up to keep me broken now
I'm bleeding out
I'm so open
Why'd you have to leave me open?
Sow me up to rip me open now
I'm pouring out
