

The Stalker

Hunter Valentine

Give a little bit and just stay a while,
I'll be your best-friend until you give in
And I saw you last night,
I saw your pretty awkwardness,
I saw you in my favourite dress as you danced in the light.
And I know I'm not your average cool guy,
But if we could just sit and talk for a while

'Cause I like your smile when you go,
'Cause it helps me deal,
It helps me cope

I snuck into your room
I put on all your clothes,
I put your favourite records on and pretended I was you.
Me and you could be two peas in a pod,
If I could just get right with god.
And I know I'm not your average cool guy,
But if we could just sit and talk for a while

'Cause I like your smile when you go,
'Cause it helps me deal,
It helps me cope
'Cause I like your smile when you go,
'Cause it helps me deal,
It helps me cope

I'm slowly going crazy 3,2,1 I could switch
I'm slowly going crazy 3,2,1 I could switch
I'm slowly going crazy 3,2,1 I could switch
I'm slowly going crazy 3,2,1 I could switch

'Cause I like your smile when you go,
'Cause it helps me deal,
It helps me cope
'Cause I like your smile when you go,
'Cause it helps me deal,
It helps me cope
