

Hear no Evil

Hunters & Collectors

From far across the ocean you can hear the sound of thunder
I listen closely but I hear to evil
Just the sounds of cities crashing as they fall into the ocean
No need to worry, it's just time and motion

It's nothing at all, nothing I can't handle
Oh but I, I hear no evil

Everything I trust I hang onto for a while
By my trembling hand as I turn the world to silence
Everything changes... all resistance is crushed
As I ride the infidel... grind his face into the dust

It's nothing at all, nothing I can't handle
Oh but I, I hear no evil
Oh but I, I hear no evil

No need to worry, there's no information
Give me total control, and I'll give you salvation
Everyone's an expert so let nature take it's course
And when I get to heaven, trace the poison to it's source
Every hero is helpless, only history's keeping score
But I keep my passion burning, watch the infidel withdraw

Oh, it's nothing at all, nothing I can't handle
Oh but I, I hear no evil
Oh but I, I hear no evil

I hear no evil

Nothing's wrong... I can't count the cost
My head is fine but my sensations are lost

I hear
I hear no evil
