

I Would Give You Anything

Huntingtons

baby please don't be so sad oh you're the only one i have i know my words fall short sometimes but they're never meant to be unkind please don't release me today c'mon baby we'll be oh oh k promise me we won't break up oh you were my teenage queen well i wanna spend my life with you and do the things you wanna do oh i, oh i would give you anything

baby don't you (?)
oh my love for you is far from dead well it's scary when you take my hand but hurting you is not my plan jenny where are you tonight it's cold outside and i'm so scared but you know i (?) promise that i'll (?) you and i (?)
