Hunxho

Sometimes I need a minute
But every time I check the time, I lose an hour
Sometimes I wanna be alone
But the only time I get alone time is when I'm in the shower, God
You get money, then you get power
Nah, fuck that, I got money and more problems
I was way in these streets just like the line on them
My money long, but it ain't higher than the crime numbers
Ain't never trippin' 'bout who fuckin' with me
My BM worried 'bout who fuckin' on me
And we ain't together no more, this shit been over
From time to time, I still make her bend over
And we ain't together no more, this shit been over
But I pray she never find love, I still love her
And I probably shouldn't even be speakin' this shit
Just tryna tell these folk how deep this shit get
They worried 'bout Keyshia and shit
Age ain't nothin' but a number, mama
Age'll never take away the love I gave you from her
And I ain't had a bitch in a minute
I'm still tryna get this shit together, Keysh', forgive me
And we be cool when we be fuckin'
But when you leave, it's always somethin'
You ain't never had to leave like wazzam?
I learned to love somebody who abused me
That shit confused me, I thought you loved me, shit, you my grandma
I been needin' me somebody I can talk to
This why I fall out about shit that we could talk through
'Cause I'm a man and as a man, I feel it's nobody to talk to
And I feel like everything 'bout money
If it ain't, then they don't hit me
What I do? Still send it, if I don't, then y'all trippin'
Feel like I'm runnin' in a marathon, I got love
Not like the love I got for Jerrica, that's my love
And I know you got a man and shit
And I don't even know why I'm sayin' this shit
But I know he don't fuck you, girl, like I fuck you
It's on God, I be slammin' shit
And sometimes I wanna leave, but I still got kids
I get down on my knees and I talk to the big
Like God, I wanna thank You for lettin' me succeed
Like, God, this shit get hard, but it is what it is
My young nigga's been wildin', he ain't tryna do a bid
But if I gotta go back, they know I won't tell
They know that I won't ask for it, I still need help
And I handle shit well, but I still bleed, yeah, yeah, yeah
Why the hell my heart so big?
It's like I love whoever I come in contact with
And how the hell I fall in love with her
When she belong to my nigga?
Bro took my bitch and fell in love with her
That's the only reason that I hit her
But I should've let it be what it's 'posed to be
That's my dog, we ain't in no competition
Ashley, you're the realest bitch I ever had
I doubt myself, why? 'Cause I did you so bad
You the only one who never stepped out, stayed down, you never left

I lost weight, I had you stretched out
I know I only call you when I want somethin', and girl, you always answer
I pull up, have you stretched out
And, Nina, girl, I hope you know I'm oh so sorry, oh so
And I know shit ain't go how it was planned out
Know you 'posed to be my girl, yeah, you was supposed to Marissa, I know I misled you
I know you would've stayed around, that's if I let you
You know my life ain't easy, baby
It's so much love I got for Dreezy, baby
Girl, Dreezy was my baby
And I ain't made this 'cause I want to, I made this 'cause I'm 'posed to
And I'm prayin' God forgive me for hurtin' all these women
Lord knows I ain't want to
That's why I never leave 'em, I try to lead 'em
Everything I say the truth, babe, but you don't believe me
But you don't believe me
But you don't believe me

These my confessions, these my confess-
These my confessions, these my confessions, my confess-
My confessions
These my confessions, y'all, my confessions, yeah
My confessions, my confess-
These my confessions, my confessions, my confess-
My confessions, my confessions

Blue, I know you love hard and you be loyal
But I love hard, I just wan' love you
And I forgive you for the times you lied to me, that shit crushed me
We friends still and I'm here for you

These my confessions, y'all, my confessions, yeah
My confessions, my confess-
These my confessions, my confessions, my confess-
My confessions, my confessions
