

JUPITER'S DANCE

Hurray For The Riff Raff

I'm a window to your room
And you'll never be home
I'm a keeper of the moon
And you'll never be home

Revelations come in two
Blowing smoke rings in the dark
I held on to only you
Can't start a fire without my heart

Still they wanna know
My mind
Still they wanna know
Why I'm on fire
Still they wanna know
My mind
Baby I

I'm a window to your room
And you'll never be home
I'm a keeper of the moon
And you'll never be home

Celestial children coming through
You never know who you'll become
You are innocent, it's true
Don't tell the people where you're from

Seven revolutions around the sun
Blessings on our way, it has only begin
Jupiter can dance with a vagabond
Like you

I'm a window to your room
And you'll never be home
I'm a keeper of the moon
And you'll never be home
