

The Party

Hurt

God damn you all
You'll suffer
Cause you've got maybe, baby
You've got one breath and one step
And if you wait a minute maybe you'll get what's left
But your guess is just as good as my guess
But I guess that you bet you've got at least two steps
But then it's one step, then another

Til I go
(And the world turns over)
Yeah, I go
(But I didn't know)
And I'll go
(When the party's over)
And I'll go
(When the screaming's over)

And he comes home to find you both in bed, undressed
And now you're both as good as dead
You've got baby, maybe
You've got one breath and one step
And if you wait a minute, mister
You guess who's next
And baby, maybe you've got one step
And maybe one step
Cause bullets wouldn't make these deaths
You're in the wrong place, in the wrong time
And look back on that
It was nothing

As I go
(It was a second time, that the world turned over)
Yeah, I go
(He was a friend of mine, but I didn't know)
And I'll go
(C'mon and pick me up, cause the party's over)
And I'll go
(Cause I will live it up, till the dreaming's over)

As I go
(It was a second time, that the world turned over)
Yeah, I go
(She was a friend of mine, but I didn't know)
And I'll go
(C'mon and pick me up, cause the party's over)
And I'll go
(Cause I will live it up, till the screaming's over)

Every minute is harder to find
You've got cheap thrills and cheap red wine
It must be something that's better than life
Than those cheap thrills and reasons why
I was committed in love with the lie
She was a sweet girl, with deep blue eyes
She said I'm bitter and hard to abide
And she spilled the cheap red wine

So I go
Yeah, I go
Yeah, I go
Yeah, I go

As I go
(It was a second time, that the world turned over)
Yeah, I go
(She was a friend of mine, but I didn't know)
And I'll go
(C'mon and pick me up, cause the party's over)
And I'll go
(But I'll live it up, till the dreaming's over)

As I go
(It was a second time, when the world was over)
Yeah, I go
(She was a friend of mine, and I didn't know)
And I'll go
(Would you pick me up, when the party's over)
And I'll go
(We will live it up, cause the screaming's over)

I'll put a second try
She was a friend of mine
So I won't pick it up
And we will live it up, anyway
