

Liar

Hurts

Step into the light
And show me your eyes
Come out of the darkness
There's nowhere to hide

Aren't you ashamed of what you did?
Aren't you ashamed of who you are?
I'm not afraid of what you'll say
I won't cry

Liar, I know your secret
Liar, you've never been misunderstood
And all your excuses
All of your lies, I don't need them
So spare me the tears
'Cause I don't have time for your reasons

Step into the light
And give up the fight
Who do you think you are fooling here?
Stop trying to hide

Is this the best that you can do?
Is this the hardest you can try?
I'm not afraid of what's to come
I won't cry, I won't cry

'Cause, liar, I know your secret
Liar, you've never been misunderstood
And all your excuses
All of your lies, I don't need them
So spare me the tears
'Cause I don't have time for your reasons

Liar, I know your secret
Liar, you've never been misunderstood
And all your excuses
All of your lies, I don't need them
So spare me the tears
I don't have time for your reasons
