Suffer

Hurts

Show me your sexy little intellect
And I'll show you how
To make your head and body disconnect
My darkest feelings start to coalesce
And I feel the bubbles
As my blood it starts to effervesce

Whisper your petty little epithets
And run down your fingers down my body like a bayonet
I see you flexing in the silhouette
So tilt back your head
If you want the feel the full effect

I feel, I suffer, I lose myself in you
I feel, I suffer, I suffer (I suffer)

Touch me and make me feel your misery
And play me like you play your twisted little symphony
'Cause I'm just addicted to you,
I'm just addicted to you,
I'm just addicted to the way
You get the worst of me

I feel, I suffer, I lose myself in you
I feel, I suffer, I suffer (I suffer)

And in the little world I disappear into you, into you
And I feel, I suffer, I suffer

(I suffer, I suffer)
I feel, I suffer, I lose myself in you
And I feel, I suffer, I suffer
I feel, I feel, I feel
Yeah I feel (I suffer), I feel (I suffer), I feel
(I suffer, I suffer)
