

Pretty Young Thang

Husalah

Uh, She was a young thang (so sweet)
She was a young thang, a pretty young thang
She was a young thang, a pretty young thang
But I'm a gangsta and I could neva love ya
She was a young thang, a pretty young thang
She was a young thang, a pretty young thang
But I'm a gangsta and I could neva love ya

She was a young thang, a pretty young thang
19, fully independent, own whip, own tilt, had me feeling it
I parked up popping game but she didn't believe me
And then I let my hair down like black Jesus
She start looking in my eyes and I starting squeezing
Naw I ain't touch her when I first met her
I just got her number called her and let her know I'm a come and get her
I pulled up in a muthafuckin old school
Pouting and growling, bounced out with my hands in my pocket
Shorty smiling coming close give me kisses, got me wilding
I ain't neva kissed a chick in the mouth before
I ain't neva thought about having a spouse before
Always thought I'd be a mack all my life
Now I gotta take it back cus I mite make her wife

So gorgeous, so sweet and so soft
Call me on my mobile while I'm on the block getting crack off
I'm getting too close I think I should back off
So many hot young mommies can I have dem all
Tell your homie build a farm and have a ball
So hot make a nigga wanna hit her raw
Naw I can't do that it's not time
I gotta get it in my mind that she's not mine
I still get it on my grind, that's how I shine
I make love to the block with a glock nine
Hot and fine, sexy gorgeous, young tender
I wanna bend her and hit her off of Norm's List
You know why cus

There's not any way that I would ever leave u
And if I die, then I'll make my way back 2 you
And now everytime I'm with you
I feel so high, that's the reason I be with u
