So I'm still in love with you

As I walk on this unfamiliar path
I see the fallen leaves and stop in place
As I watch TV alone
I force myself to laugh once again

When this winter passes, it will be alright
Like yesterday, it will pass by quickly
Where do I go, where do I go
Until my flowing memories dry up
Just until then, I will look for you
Where do I go, where do I go

I'm falling in love
I can't escape
I'm falling in love
I'm still in that place
Why did you only take love
And only leave behind a goodbye that I can't handle?
So I'm still in love with you

When this winter passes, it will be alright
Like yesterday, it will pass by quickly
Where do I go, where do I go
Until my flowing memories dry up
Just until then, I will look for you
Where do I go, where do I go

I'm falling in love
I'm still in that place
Why did you only take love
And only leave behind a goodbye that I can't handle?
So I'm still in love with you

I don't wanna cry anymore
What do I have to do?
It is endless, it is endless

I'm falling in love
I can't escape
I'm falling in love
I'm still in that place
Why did you only take love
And only leave behind a goodbye that I can't handle?
So I'm still in love with you
