

Perfect Existence

Hypnogaja

Excuse my intrusion
I do not mean you harm
I'm used to confusion
Because I lack in charm

All that I have
Is all that I give
And I do not need you here for me to live

It doesn't matter to me
That you do not hear when I scream
I'm just talking to myself

I never meant to disturb you
In your perfect existence
Please feel free to turn and walk away
I didn't mean to destroy you
In this one imperfect instance
Please don't let my life get in your way

Did I break your illusion
And show you who you are
Did I reach your conclusion
And play the perfect part

If I pushed it too hard
Should I apologize
Or should I take pride in watching your demise

It doesn't matter at all
That you do not hear when I talk
I'm just talking to myself

I never meant to disturb you
In your perfect existence
Please feel free to turn and walk away
I didn't mean to destroy you
In this one imperfect instance
Please don't let my life get in your way

So should it please the royal court
I'll be the one for you to ignore
I'm bending knee and backwards bent
My blood'll run for you

I never meant to disturb you
In your perfect existence
I never meant to destroy you
Destroy you (2x)
Perfect existence
What I meant to destroy you
Destroy you

I didn't mean to destroy you
In this one imperfect instance
Please don't let my life get in your way

So should it please the royal court
I'll be the one for you to ignore
I'm bending knee and backwards bent
My blood'll run for you

I never meant to disturb you
In your perfect existence
I never meant to destroy you
Destroy you (2x)
Perfect existence
What I meant to destroy you
Destroy you
