

Gods of the Underground

Hypocrisy

They live underground
In a honeycomb society
Evil porthole to the underworld
Illuminati and the alien world order

Please welcome to the war zone
As we turn into zombies
Kill or be killed, eat or be eaten
I see you on my way to hell

Gods, Gods of the underground
Controls the surface of elite
Bloodline runs through corrupted bodies
Dictated by terror and by greed

Gods, Gods of the underground
Controls the surface of elite
Bloodline runs through corrupted bodies
Dictated by terror and by greed

Our lives that we're living
Is not what we thought
Can you feel it?
Nothing matters anymore

Educational system, media under their control
To keep us lazy and numb down and to live blind in the unknown
To create a new race, that's part A.I. and human
They plug us into the central computer then they will rule us all

Please welcome to the war zone
Don't ever let them fool you
Riding high on their lies
I see you on my way to hell

Gods, Gods of the underground
Controls the surface of elite
Bloodline runs through corrupted bodies
Dictated by terror and by greed

Gods, Gods of the underground
Controls the surface of elite
Bloodline runs through corrupted bodies
Dictated by terror and by greed
