

Bound For Glory

Hyro The Hero

Can't sleep at night with all these demons in my mind
Surrounded by the dark and I'm tryna find the light
I know there's an escape but I see no exit signs
How can we be saved if the blind lead the blind

I'm consumed by my emotions
Approaching up the ladder but I wonder if it's broken
Can I get back up again, I'm never losing focus
I learned along the way that I'm the one that can control this

No one's gonna save me
It's all in my hands
Every time they put up walls I'm the demolition man
Been defeated, bruised, and beaten but keep coming back again
Pain only makes you stronger in the world we living in
I made pain my bitch

Will the world ignore me
Coming from the wrong side of the tracks
Is it the same old story
Or am I bound for glory

Yo
Bound for glory
Bound for glory

Will the world ignore me
Bound for glory
Is it the same old story
Am I bound for glory

I stand on the ruins of the ones that gave up
I stand in the remains of the ones that couldn't cut it
Bloody, bruised, and beaten
They just left me there to rust
They looked down on me but now they looking up

I rised above
I'm on the highest peak
I done it all, I got receipts
Fuck the ones who doubted me
Much loved to the ones that vouched for me
I'm so high up I cannot breathe
Don't hold your breath
Tryna reach, it's kind of steep
This kind of climb has ruined lives, they six feet deep

In the face of danger I became ruthless
They had to lie in the dirt to find out who the truth is
I thought the top was an illusion, now there no confusion
All heart, no fear and no excuses

Will the world ignore me
Coming from the wrong side of the tracks
Or am I bound for glory

Yo
Bound for glory

I let myself decide
Cause I'm the author now of my story
Bound for glory
So watch me create my place
With all the greats that was here before me
Am I bound for glory

Bound for glory

I can't sleep
All these demons on my mind
Surrounded by the dark
I'm tryna find the light
I know there's an escape
But I see no exit signs
How can I be saved if the blind lead the blind
The blind lead the blind
