

Man In My City

Hyro The Hero

I'm the man in my city
I'm the king of my block
I'm the one from the bottom who made his way to the top
You just live here, nigga you just live here
I'm the man in my city
My nigga you just live here
You just live here, nigga you just live here

Boy shut your mouth when a grown man speakin'
I'm the man in my city, when I speak niggas listen
I'm what the game's missin', Gangsta' rock genre
He try to be a rocka'
That nigga just a jocka'
Leader not a follower
I'm a amazin' in every occasion, I'm fuckin' phenomenal
Destroyin' I conquer all obstacles
I'll show you the impossible is possible

You (don't know this part) bitch made fuck? I'm the man in my city
This ain't what you want
No games when I come boy
With no body
Cause I keep comin nigga
Rastafari

I'm the man in my city
I'm the king of my block
I'm the one from the bottom who made his way to the top
You just live here, nigga you just live here
I'm the man in my city
My nigga you just live here
You just live here, nigga you just live here

That whole gangsta' act ain't necessary
Cause all it's gonna' do is lead you to the cemetery
Make your days come up short like February
You realize this real nigga shit get real scary
Don't worry though, I'm (don't know) with a bad bitch
She give me bad brain
While I'm sittin' back rockin' out to Bad Brains
(Not sure here either)
Chillin' in the house with yo' bitch like I'm Mr
Clean

I'm the man in my city
I'm the king of my block
I'm the one from the bottom who made his way to the top
You just live here, nigga you just live here
I'm the man in my city
My nigga you just live here
You just live here, nigga you just live here

Over saturation, is what this nation's facin'
No individuals, a plethora of imitation
Bunch of artists full of hype and exaggeration
But in these tryin' times, I'm the motivation
Find a safe haven Cause I ain't playin' hoes

I came to bring change
Just like the Deftones
Someone run before I leave you all none and void
(I know that isn't right but I got tired of letting you down)
Cause this brother here, pissed off and paranoid

I'm the man in my city
I'm the king of my block
I'm the one from the bottom who made his way to the top
You just live here, nigga you just live here
I'm the man in my city
My nigga you just live here
You just live here, nigga you just live here
