

Never Back Down

Hyro The Hero

Confessions of a loose cannon
Boom, feel the flame from this giant ass dragon
Got a couple screws loose that's danglin'
I'm just tryna keep my head from hangin'
'Cause I gotta keep my head up
Just up, even when I'm feelin' fed up
Cross tends to get me and it's lookin' like a setup
Built to survive, I will never ever let up

Kill 'em, kill 'em, never lay down we kill 'em, kill 'em
These are my ambitions as a winner, winner
Never cover my eyes, can't give up, give up
All that remains
A broken out parcel with torn up stains
People outrage
'Cause one thing, I never been afraid
Never back down, never back down
'Cause one thing, I never been afraid
Never back down, never back down
'Cause one thing, I never been afraid
Never back down, never

Okay, I'm reloaded
I want the whole world to take notice
I want everyone to stay focused
Here and hear the words that are spoken, I
Never been afraid to be the one to stir it up
Take my enemies and put 'em in the dust
Tickin' timebomb, I been ready to erupt
And I'm lookin' for a reason to show the people what I'm made of

Kill 'em, kill 'em, never lay down we kill 'em, kill 'em
These are my ambitions as a winner, winner
Never cover my eyes, can't give up, give up
Never back down, never back down
'Cause one thing, I never been afraid
Never back down, never back down
'Cause one thing, I never been afraid
Never back down, never back down
'Cause one thing, I never been afraid
Never back down, never

Never back down, never back down
Never back down, never back down
Never back down, never back down
Never back down, never

'Cause one thing, I never been afraid
Never back down, never back down
'Cause one thing, I never been afraid
Never back down, never
Kill 'em, kill 'em, never lay down we kill 'em, kill 'em
These are my ambitions as a winner, winner
Never cover my eyes, can't give up, give up
Never back down, never back down
(Kill 'em, kill 'em, never lay down we kill 'em, kill 'em)
(These are my ambitions as a winner, winner)

Never cover my eyes, can't give up, give up
Never back down, never back down
Never back down, never back down
People outrage
'Cause one thing, I never been afraid
