

Retaliation Generation

Hyro The Hero

We are the youth
We are intelligence
We are the truth
We are the future
We the resistance
We cannot lose
What are you waiting for, you a
You a sleeping giant
We can change the chorus, you can't
You can't keep us quiet
We apply pressure
Became aggressors
Overthrew oppressors
No you can't suppress us

Our time is now
Speak it to existence
We run from nothing
We the resistance

We are the
We are the anonymous with no faces
We are the
We are the savages of a nation
We are the
We are the leaders of the invasion
Retaliation generation
Retaliation generation

They despise us
Cause we defiant
This alliance
Gone start a riot
This alliance
Cannot be quiet
This alliance
Can't be divided

We so combative they don't like to be challenged
We so massive
You don't want none of this static
When we pull together
They don't like the temperature
No, you can't suppress us
We surrender never

Our time is now
Speak it to existence
We run from nothing
We the resistance

We are the
We are the anonymous with no faces
We are the
We are the savages of a nation
We are the
We are the leaders of the invasion

Retaliation generation

We're breaking down these walls
Fist in the air as we watch them fall
Our time is now, no time to waste
How you gonna run when there's no escape

Retaliation generation

Ain't no escape
Ain't no escape

Run away, run away

Devour these cowards
It's time for our power
They ducking for cover
They run and they scour
Shiver and naked and cold
Cause they been exposed
How does it feel to be dethroned

We are the
We are the anonymous with no faces
We are the
We are the savages of a nation
We are the
We are the leaders of the invasion
Retaliation generation

We're breaking down these walls
Our time is now, no time to waste
