

Who's That Playing On The Radio?

Hyro The Hero

God dang
Feel the motherfuckin' temperature rise
Ooh wee
It's a war outside
No in between
Man, woman, child
Picking a side
When you're living in the great divide
It's the great divide

Stay woke
Don't be deaf, dumb, and blind
Backstabbin' killers come' from behind
Don't get caught by surprise
This ain't your turf, we on enemy lines
Ain't your turf, we on enemy lines

Who's that playing on your radio
Who's that playing on your stereo
It's dem boys
Dem boys
Dem boys
It's dem boys
Dem boys
Dem boys

Who's that playing on the radio
Who's that playing on the stereo
It's dem boys
Dem boys
Dem boys
It's dem boys
Dem boys
Dem boys

I can't believe your lies
You rep your side and I rep mine
We think you brainwashed, you hypnotized
And you think the same
We won't comply, we won't comply
Will it be this way forever
I want peace amongst the streets
People coming together

We both never will settle
We are rebels in our mind
Our differences full on collide

Who's that playing on your radio
Who's that playing on your stereo
It's dem boys
Dem boys
Dem boys
It's dem boys
Dem boys
Dem boys

Who's that playing on the radio
Who's that playing on the stereo
It's dem boys
Dem boys
Dem boys
It's dem boys
Dem boys
Dem boys

You can only divide us if we choose to divide
You can only draw a line down the middle if we take a side
Until the music starts screaming from the rooftops
If you're sick of giving up, if you've had enough

Who's that playing on your radio
Who's that playing on your stereo
It's dem boys
Dem boys
Dem boys
It's dem boys
Dem boys
Dem boys

Who's that playing on the radio
Who's that playing on the stereo
It's dem boys
Dem boys
Dem boys
It's dem boys
Dem boys
Dem boys
