

Worst Behavior

Hyro The Hero

We chop 'em like a machete
I'm locked loaded and ready
Any attack that we coming against
I'm on my worst behavior
You know I been ready for this
Been ready to represent
I send to cement
You lay where you standing at
I'm an earthquake, an avalanche
Who the fuck is you staring at

I'm on my worst
I'm on my worst behavior

I'm on my worst
I'm on my worst behavior

I'm on worst
I'm on my worst behavior

I'm on worst
I'm on my worst behavior

We can't listen what you say
You a slave to the system that we hate
We don't play games
We renegades
Make a motherfucker have to run away
Make a motherfucker have to plan escapes
We the type of people cannot be contained
We the type of people to attack
What the fuck is you staring at

I'm on my worst
I'm on my worst behavior

I'm on my worst
I'm on my worst behavior

I'm on my worst
I'm on my worst behavior

I'm on my worst
I'm on my worst behavior

If I'm on the stage
Don't be afraid
Rush the barricade like a motherfucking
Freight train

Move out the way
Freight train

Move out the way
Freight train

We sending them back to they caves

Find a place that you'll be safe
You know that we don't play games
We rush the barricade like a

We sending them back to they caves

Is it all a dream
These heights people reach seem so impossible to achieve
I've tried looking in the mirror repeating lines full of positivity, working on my self esteem
I mean do they cheat they way to the top
Do they sell they soul
Are they the chosen ones
Or did they work super hard to reach they goals
I don't know
I feel impatient like I know a blessing waiting
I try not to fly in God face but seems like no one listens when I'm praying
Or maybe it's up to me and these beliefs are holding me back and I should be on my worst behavior

We chop em like a machete
Any attack that we coming against I'm on my worst behavior

I'm on my worst
I'm on my worst behavior

I'm on my worst
I'm on my worst behavior

I'm on my worst
I'm on my worst behavior

I'm on my worst
I'm on my worst behavior
