

Lonely

Hyukoh

Lonely your embrace is disappeared
Slowly your smells disappeared
Suddenly indulge in old memories
Scattered pieces of old flame
Keep knocking the door

Tell me if you're not alone
If there's someone now
I don't wanna bother more
Please answer me
I don't wanna disappear
In your whole world
Like I didn't past

Oh, please answer me
I don't wanna disappear
In your whole world
Like I didn't past
