

Mer
Floating her words
Melted she said
I long for that
We met
Followed the map
Looked for the gold
I long for you

Even if the reasons change it's never gonna freeze again
Even if the matters change we're all gonna remain the same
Even if we face the end thoughts are gonna stay as cells though
All that is what I want
All that is what I want

Across another river reached the ocean just before sunset
Bombing started with roar yet we're unfazed we're unamazed
We're staying calm and chasing other details not that easy though
All that is what I want
All that is what I want

Mer
One for myself
One for the wish
I long for you
We met
One is for you
One for the gold
I long for that

Even if the reasons change it's never gonna freeze again
Even if the matters change we're all gonna remain the same
Even if we face the end thoughts are gonna stay as cells though
All that is what I want
All that is what I want

Across another river reached the ocean just before sunset
Bombing started with a roar yet we're unfazed we're unamazed
We're staying calm and chasing other details not that easy though
All that is what I want
All that is what I want
