

Our Place

Hyukoh

You just walk the main street
I just walk the edge of the bridge
You're not came to the our place
And my tears, we came down
Yeah, I'm cried, yeah, I'm cried
I wished her had run away from me

Collapse my pride, please, come to my bed
It's drifting away
Oh, collapse my pride, please, come to my bed
It's drifting away-ay, it's drifting away-ay

Oh, I'll try, try, try, try, try, try, try to be your host
It's time, time, time, time, time, time you know that what I want
Hold tight, tight, tight, tight, tight, tight
Even more than I know you before
Don't lie, lie, lie, lie, lie, lie with suffering here alone, alone

I just walked on mountains
You just walk into city-side
You're not came to the our place
And my tears, we came down
Yeah, I'm cried, yeah, I'm cried
I wished her had run away from me

Collapse my pride, please, come to my bed
It's drifting away
Oh, collapse my pride, please, come to my bed
It's drifting away-ay, it's drifting away-ay

Try, try, try, try, try, try, try to be your host
It's time, time, time, time, time, time you know that what I want
Hold tight, tight, tight, tight, tight, tight
Even more than I know you before
Don't lie, lie, lie, lie, lie, lie with suffering here alone, alone

Try, try, try, try, try, try, try to be your host
It's time, time, time, time, time, time you know that what I want
Hold tight, tight, tight, tight, tight, tight
Even more than I know you before
Don't lie, lie, lie, lie, lie, lie with suffering here alone, alone
