

Sing a song to my beloved friends
Dear Simon
And also when I look for you, there comes
Silence
I'm still trying to
Remember all your names
I just wonder how you feel
Comes silence

Nowadays gravestones swerving around me
And someday it's forgotten
Morning mama pass away
At heaven's gate remember me
Knows my grief, pain inside
Do I have a choice of what to do
Remain silence
Just silence

Cross the line we've never been before
I know it's useless
But I did try and I won't mind
Cross the line we've never been before
I do try I won't lie
Only heaven knows without who knows

Nowadays gravestones swerving around me
And some days forgotten
Morning mama pass away
At heaven's gate remember me
Lost my pretend inside
Do I have a choice of what to do
Remain silence
Just silence

Cross the line we've never been before
I know it's useless
But I did try and I won't mind
Cross the line we've never been before
I do try I won't lie
Only heaven knows without who knows

Sing a song to be my loved friends
Dear Simon
And also when I look for you, there comes
Silence
I'm still trying to
Remember all your names
I just wonder how you feel
Comes silence
