I just wanna be your flower, freshly red
With my flowery scent, I lure in all the bees
Even as flowers wither, don't you worry, they will bloom again
As I bloom in vivid colors, everyone stares at me

They're all looking at me now, all of this attention
I don't hate it
Flowers bloom again, just gotta let it go, OK

Can you hear me now

I'm paving my own floral path
I'm gonna shower myself with flowers

Take a flower shower
Shower me with flowers
Sing it, sing it babe
Wing it, wing it babe
Bring it, bring it babe
Doused in flowery scent
Like doomda doomda
Like doomda doomda

I'mma be forever young, fresh and green
When spring comes, get, set, go, I bloom anew
Don't be hasty, just like seasons, everything will return
From head to toe, HyunA is red

Just let me be, you don't mean what you say
Give me your like, give me your like eh eh
It's like a rose, it's the same feeling, OK
Let's sing this song

I'm paving my own floral path
I'm gonna shower myself with flowers

Take a flower shower
Shower me with flowers
Sing it, sing it babe
Wing it, wing it babe
Bring it, bring it babe
Doused in flowery scent

I believe in forever, like a flower
Why don't we all believe in forever?
Or are we just in denial?
Even if I wither, I want to bloom brightly
Paint the sky with my vivid colors
Never give up and I say never say never

Take a flower shower
Shower me with flowers
Sing it, sing it babe
Wing it, wing it babe
Bring it, bring it babe
Doused in flowery scent
