

Lamb to the Slaughter

I Am Abomination

Gods of no men, a futile reign
Lord, have faith in me
And watch as I tear apart your archangels wing by wing
Lord, have faith in me
I am your end
And we all just want to watch you burn
"Light the torch," they scream
(Oh, oh)
May you choke upon a scarlet flood
Swallow blood with me
I am your ending
I march into the swarm
They follow in magnificent rhythm
Together we'll destroy them all
Extinction is the only decision
Shear the wings from every angel
So flightless they remain
The slaughter not in vain
We retake our throne
And we all just want to watch you burn
"Light the torch," they scream

(Oh, oh)
May you choke upon a scarlet flood
Future I foresee
(We are the revolt)
We are praying for the tides to turn
Crucify the beast
(We are the revolt)
Wading in the blood of holy ones
Closer to defeat
Soulless and vengeful
A hollowed mass without a trace of faith
Revenger marching through damnation
The destroyer turns to wraith
Ghostly crystal spires tower the horizon
Their shadows on the shrines of man
And we all just want to watch them burn
And we all just want to watch you burn
"Light the torch," they scream
May you choke upon a scarlet flood
Swallow blood with me
