

Labor

I Am Empire

Labor is coming for me It's coming for all of my daylight I'll savor the best of my friends My lady Her kiss in the moonlight I worked hard to save up my pay But God did not say He was able To give me the life I deserve The comfort of knowing I'm stabl e

I can't relate to that promise You made Cause I'm tried and bar ely awake No I can't believe in that dream of relief Cause I'm tired and always afraid To life my life without You Give me whatever I need To keep my head above water Cause it's rising up like a flood The danger of death is resounding Then Y ou came down from the clouds Lifted me up like a feather Told m e the worst of your days are sinking away with an anchor

Every day I sit and wonder why I waste my time for a nickel and a dime Everyday ask myself why
