

Remedy

I Am Empire

Planet crash Ocean splash Feel the weight sinking in Iron cross Count as loss God is not a penny toss I don't know how to believe in The love that haunts my resistance

Walking in your shoes Running from the truth

This is for everything The time we gave away Nothing left to say This is a remedy For all the things we've lost Inside a heavy heavy heart

I am not about to stop pushing theories overboard Secret spot see
I'm not hiding in you anymore I saw the hands of forgiveness Release the chains of regretful bliss I give into the sound of your smile

Looking back at all my mistakes They vanish with the pain I don't need to know anything at all I'm kicking in the walls Rebuilt
