

Before You

I Belong To The Zoo

I'm setting my own table to Undergo removing you
Clear out the air from my lungs
To breathe in a life that I once knew

Take me back
Before you
Take me back
Before you

I walk on stilts finding my way
As I go on without holding to you
If this would be regret then let it be known
I was always true to you but you never really cared

Take me back
Before you
Take me back
Before you

Take me back
Before you
Take me back
Before I
Fall for you
All over again
