

Breathe

I Belong To The Zoo

Would it be alright if I
Bring you home today
'Cause I don't want you standing in line all day
You can take the back seat
I won't mind
You can stretch your tired legs
I'll keep you safe

Close your eyes
And feel the air
Close your eyes
And feel the air

Was it another busy day
'Cause your hair's a mess
Just pull all the windows down and don't give a care
Let's go to your favorite spot
Just tell me where
'Cause my father filled the tank and he won't mind

Close your eyes
And feel the air
Close your eyes
And feel the air

Let's not talk about us
Let's not talk
Just breathe it in
