

Finally

I Belong To The Zoo

Your eyes turn as conversations go by
Like a new pair of Nikes that I can't afford
You ask me why I'm a magnet for misery
I'm just getting ready for when I'm left alone

I'm left alone
I'm left alone
I'm left alone

You turned and said you see the best in everything
Well if that's true please lend me your eyes
Where were you when I was lost years ago
'Cause if I knew you then, I'd never let you go

Never let you go
Nerve let you go
Never let you go

Call the papers 'cause I think I just
Figured out how to be finally happy
Call the papers 'cause I think I just
Figured out how to be finally happy

A big plate of bacon
And a lifetime with you
