

The Greatest Enemy

I Belong To The Zoo

Here I am
Questions running inside my mind again
You walk towards me
And I turn away
Impassive serves me well
By hiding these restless thoughts
Always supposing, never certain
Of what you want

Every night I think of you
Hoping I could say to you
Everything, every word, every feeling
I have for you tonight

I keep waiting for a sign
A line between caution and fear
I am drowning in my bed
Thinking of what to do next
Anyone, get me some help
'Cause the greatest enemy is within me

Every night I think of you
Hoping I could say to you
Everything, every word, every feeling
I have for you tonight

Believe in me, believe in me
I know I've done so many stupid things before
But I'm willing to risk everything
Just for you to believe

Everything

Every night I think of you
Hoping I could say to you
Everything, every word, every feeling
I have for you tonight
