

Grieve for No One

I Declare War

You are not important
You are not significant
Your life means nothing we all move on
No grieving over time
You will be forgotten
No great lapses in time for your suffering
Fake tears and posts with you in our thoughts
You are just a blip
You are nothing to anyone

When you die we move on
We grieve for no one
Prayers aren't necessary no purpose for the dead

Grieving is only a moment left in time
We have no purpose for you when you are dead
Bury you in the ground, cremate your body
Give it two months no more tears will be shed
Wallow on the ground wait for it end

No long goodbyes
Just empty rooms to die!
Wallow in your own sickness!

You are not important
You are not significant
Your life means nothing we all move on
No grieving over time
You will be forgotten
No great lapses in time for your suffering
Fake tears and posts with you in our thoughts
You are just a blip
You are nothing to anyone
Life is pain
Nothing is ever going to change
