

Millions Will Burn

I Declare War

It rips into the flesh
Cutting straight through the bone
With a heat so intense
The sun pales in comparison
Leaving not even bone, but dust
Shadows burnt into cement from the flash

No human should experience this
This flash of heat on the flesh
Dropped from a faceless man
Traveling supersonic

Millions will burn
Millions will burn
Millions will burn
Flesh turns to bone
Bone turns to dust

Radiation sits on these grounds
Making all exposed sick
Mass suicide relieves all this pain
Circulating through their bodies
Leaving not even bone, but dust
Shadows burnt into cement from the flash

Millions will burn
Millions will burn
Millions will burn
Flesh turns to bone
Bone turns to dust
Millions will burn
Millions will burn
Millions will burn
Flesh turns to bone
Bone turns to dust
