When I follow you home
In the dark of your apartment
When you think you're alone

What will it take
What else should I do
How far must I go to prove
That I love you

But I'll get you, yeah
I've got to make you mine
Just know I'm not the sinister type
But I'll get you, yeah
I've got to make you mine
Just know I'm not the sinister type

Oh you never seem to notice
That my heart beats for you
So I'll open you up
And make yours beat for me too

But I'll get you, yeah
I've got to make you mine
Just know I'm not the sinister type
But I'll get you, yeah
I've got to make you mine
Just know I'm not the sinister type
