

Fight For You

I Fight Dragons

To the left, to the right I can feel it all around
Out to get you and I Out to try and break us down

They will come with the strength and the fire
And a numb beat of drums
And the song of the sirens in our ears
That will bring them all to tears dear

Yes I will fight for you
You and me against the world is nothing new
Now and forever true
If you'll be mine then I will fight for you

So we stand back to back and we smile as they come
Cause they plan for attack
Knowing we've already won

Save the girl and the world will be jealous
Wouldn't you if you knew that the truth
Was the girl will take you too
And there's nothing they can do
To you

Yes I will fight for you
You and me against the world is nothing new
Now and forever true
If you'll be mine then I will fight for you

Only the two of us know how (only the two of us know how)
Nothing can come between us now (nothing can come between us now)
Nothing can come between us now

Yes I will fight for you
You and me against the world is nothing new
Now and forever true
If you'll be mine then I will fight

Yes I will fight for you
You and me against the world is nothing new
Now and forever true
If you'll be mine then I will fight for you

Only the two of us know how (then I will fight for you)
Nothing can come between us now (then I will fight for you)
