

Picture Perfect

I Hate Kate

Picture perfect eyes of abandon Cry a river to drown me in
Picture perfect lies on the table are you in?

And it's eating me alive
Eating me alive

Take me
Take me far away
From all the shit that's going on outside
I need a better place

Break me
Break me free from these chains
That keep me bound to your riot deep inside
I need a better place

Picture perfect disguise on your face
One mistake and it's all black
Let's decide not to divide and get it back
It's the footsteps I hear in the hallway
The silhouette on a foggy night
Your scent left on my pillow I still find

And it's eating me alive
Eating me alive

Take me
Take me far away
From all the shit that's going on outside
I need a better place

Break me
Break me free from these chains
That keep me bound to your riot deep inside
I need a better place

Take me
Take me far away
From all the shit that's going on outside
I need a better place

Break me
Break me free from these chains
That keep me bound to your riot deep inside
I need a better place

Take me
Take me far away
From all the shit that's going on outside
I need a better place

Break me
Break me free from these chains
That keep me bound to your riot deep inside
I need a better place to Place to find
