

Bad Things

I Prevail

I've got a lot of bad things in my mind
The simulation crashing by design
And my mind is dangerous, don't play with things
You don't know know know know
I'm falling into dark thoughts that I find
Reality is long gone but that's fine
And my mind is dangerous, don't play with things
You don't know know know know

I know you hate to see it but you never wanna talk about it
And hate yourself a little more when you can't live without it
It's like praying for rain when you're already drowning
You're already drowning, yeah

So go ahead and twist the knife, I can't feel the damage
Always searching for the high, never kicked the habit
It's like praying for rain but I'm already drowning

I keep staring at the sun, it's in my blood
I'm headed for disaster
Burn bridges just for fun, have I gone numb?
It's a goddamn shame
I push away the people that I love the most
Addicted to the feeling and the chemicals
I'm holding onto hope but it only destroys me
'Cause I'm in love with bad things (bad things)
Yeah, I'm in love with

I keep on falling like it's summer going into autumn
I keep on digging even though I'm 'bout to hit the bottom
It's like praying for change but I never found it
No, I never found it, yeah

So go ahead and twist the knife, I can't feel the damage
Always searching for the high, never kicked the habit
It's like praying for change but I never found it

I keep staring at the sun, it's in my blood
I'm headed for disaster
Burn bridges just for fun, have I gone numb?
It's a goddamn shame
I push away the people that I love the most
Addicted to the feeling and the chemicals
I'm holding onto hope but it only destroys me
'Cause I'm in love with bad things (bad things)
Yeah, I'm in love with

Looking into the abyss, the future is a myth
I'm holding onto hope, it's a problem, I admit
Letting go of my fear, a feeling I miss
The devil is real and I'm caught in his grip
Looking into the abyss, the future is a myth
I'm holding onto hope, it's a problem, I admit
Letting go of my fear, a feeling I miss
The devil is real, and I'm caught in his grip

Oh, oh

I keep staring at the sun, it's in my blood
I'm headed for disaster
Burn bridges just for fun, have I gone numb? (Gone numb)
It's a goddamn shame (goddamn shame)
I push away the people that I love the most
Addicted to the feeling and the chemicals
I'm holding onto hope but it only destroys me
'Cause I'm in love with bad things
(I push away the people that I love the most) (bad things)
(Addicted to the feeling and the chemicals)
Yeah, I'm in love with bad things
(I'm holding onto hope but it only destroys me) (bad things)
Yeah, I'm in love with
