Bow Down

I Prevail

Get on your knees and bow down

Yea, I come alive, I'll survive, take on anything
So paint a target on my back let 'em come for me
I don't fall, don't quit, don't ever sleep
Cuz I'm on another level that you'll never reach
If you seek forgiveness
You'll get nothing, you'll get nothing from me

You will never know, it's the price I pay
Look into my eyes, we are not the same
Yeah this is where you fall apart
Yeah this is where you break
Cuz I'm in control and you'll know my name
Cuz I gave my life, gave it everything
Yeah this is where you fall apart
Yeah this is where you break
To everybody who doubted
Get on your knees and bow down
Get on your knees and bow down

You better recognize

You wanna talk that shit, time to back it up
Cuz the best of your best ain't good enough
Playing with my name, now I know you really fucked up
Keep running your mouth and I'ma call your bluff

You will never know, it's the price I pay
Look into my eyes, we are not the same
Yeah this is where you fall apart
Yeah this is where you break
Cuz I'm in control and you'll know my name
Cuz I gave my life, gave it everything
Yeah this is where you fall apart
Yeah this is where you break
To everybody who doubted
Get on your knees and

You're never gonna be enough

So I had this dream, it meant everything and I watched it come alive
Then I let you in, underneath my skin and I learned to love the lies
Now I lay awake and I contemplate, have I become what I hate
Can I take it back, cuz it's all I have? Will it get the best of me?

Have you ever had a dream? Would you fight for it?
Would you go to war? Would you die for it?
So now I'll take my stand, now I'll make you see
That if you seek forgiveness
You'll get nothing from me

You'll get nothing from me
You'll get nothing from me
You'll get nothing from me

To everybody who doubted

To everybody who doubted
To everybody who doubted
Get on your knees and bow down
Bow down, bow down
