

They said this record isn't ever gonna make it
They say just fall in line and go put out the same shit
They tell me pushing limits only gets you hated
Yeah, but where were they when I was in my basement

Can somebody tell me why
The more I see my enemies the more I feel alive
The more that they wish death to me, the more I never die
I can hear 'em yelling rest in peace, and that's the sound I like
Yeah success is never destiny, it's all a frame of mind

The moment I created
Your mind is overtaken
You feel the fear creeping in but you never face it
So unoriginal, it's unforgivable
So strike a match, pour the gas, watch it all explode

Fuck what you think you know, just be a ghost
Or you'll find out what it's like when I'm coming for your throat
Everybody knows I did this alone
I got a lot of thoughts up in this brain that I can't control
Fuck what you think you know, just let it go
There are answers to your questions that I promise you don't wanna know
Everybody knows I did this alone
Heavy lies the crown if you're comin' for the throne

So say goodbye
'Cause everything and anything you think about is mine
You feel it sinking deeper as I occupy your mind
Yeah the more you try and fight it it'll only multiply
So save your breath, this is do it or die
Because
When you're on top you're hated
And when you're not they're claimin'
They got your back, but the fact is they hope you're failing
It's unmistakable and so predictable
But don't think that I'd ever consider to quit
I'm never gonna stop till I'm the greatest to live

Fuck what you think you know, just be a ghost
Or you'll find out what it's like when I'm coming for your throat
Everybody knows I did this alone
I got a lot of thoughts up in this brain that I can't control
Fuck what you think you know, just let it go
There are answers to your questions that I promise you don't wanna know
Everybody knows I did this alone
Heavy lies the crown if you're comin' for the throne

They say this record isn't ever gonna make it
They say just fall in line and go put out the same shit
They tell me pushing limits only gets you hated
But where were they when I was in my basement

"... that all your life... that all your love, all your hate, all your memories, it was all the same thing. It was all the same dream... And like a lot of dreams, there's a monster at the end of it."
