

Fuck

I'd set the world on fire just to watch you burn
You self-righteous prick, when will you fucking learn
That you can't be saved?
Look into my eyes and meet your god

Meet your god

I'll rip your tongue from your mouth
Your words fall on deaf ears
I'll strike you down, snuff you out
Your prayers will go unanswered, fuck

Pray for mercy from your master
Your prayers will go unanswered
You worthless fucking bastard
Your prayers will go unanswered
Meet your god

Parasitic, inorganic, counterfeited
Narcissistic, self-obsessive, what's the difference?
Is it hatred or fear
When you pray to your god and the devil appears?
The ending is near
You will fucking rot

Blood of the heretics, sins of the arrogant, built my empire of bones
Slaughter my enemies, all who opposed me are skulls at the foot of my throne
Hand me the noose, I'll tie the knot
Look in my eyes and meet your god

Meet your god
