

Hurricane

I Prevail

Tell me I was never good enough
Remind me of the demons
That I've been running from
Tell me who the hell you thought I was
Or just blame it on the person
The person I've become

Lately, I don't give a fuck
Cuz I can't be myself when I'm with anyone
Maybe, I'm already gone
I'll never be the same

It hit me like a hurricane
It hit me like a tidal wave
And I don't know why I drown my mind
In everything they say
It hit me like a hurricane
It hit me like a tidal wave
And I don't know why I drown my mind
It got the best of me

Tell me I've been lost inside my mind
(I reach out but it's pullin' me under)
Remind me I've been searching
For something I won't find
Tell me I was never worth the time
(I reach out but it's pullin' me under)
Or just blame it on my person
You think I left behind

Lately, I don't give a fuck
Cuz I can't be myself when I'm with anyone
Maybe, I'm already gone
I'll never be the same

It hit me like a hurricane
It hit me like a tidal wave
And I don't know why I drown my mind
In everything they say
It hit me like a hurricane (Hurricane)
It hit me like a tidal wave (Tidal wave)
And I don't know why I drown my mind
It got the best of me

With your life on the line
Ready to die for something
When you're at the divide
And you're down to nothing
Look into my eyes

Believe me that the storm is coming
Down
Believe me that the storm is coming
Down, down
Down
It's coming down

It hit me like a hurricane
It hit me like a tidal wave
And I don't know why I drown my mind
In everything they say
It hit me like a hurricane (Hurricane)
It hit me like a tidal wave (Tidal wave)
And I don't know why I drown my mind
It got the best of me

It's coming down, down
Believe me that the storm is coming
Down

Lately, I don't give a fuck
Cuz I can't be myself when I'm with anyone
And maybe, I'm already gone
