

Judgement Day

I Prevail

I walked into the darkness
I set myself on fire
I stared into the heartless
And I found out death is a liar
So burn it all to ashes
Drown them all in acid
Say fuck pleasing the masses
Don't blink
I'm going beyond your understanding
Beyond the unimagined
Be honest are you ready or not

Let's find out right now
Oh, destroy yourself, welcome to the end

I don't care about what they say
Everybody's sorry on judgment day
Nothing's gonna break me
I've got ice inside my veins
There's gotta be (be) a (a) better way
There's greatness in my DNA
When it all goes up in flames
You'll get yours on judgment day

I was born on the path to nowhere
Cast out, not a goddamn thing to prove
No home, no thoughts, and no prayers
I've got nothing to lose, so fuckin
Burn it all to ashes
Drown them all in acid
I'm done pleasing the masses
You'll see
I'm going beyond your understanding
Beyond the unimagined
Be honest are you ready or not

'Cause I don't care about what they say
Everybody's sorry on judgment day
Nothing's gonna break me
I've got ice inside my veins
There's gotta be (be) a (a) better way
There's greatness in my DNA
When it all goes up in flames
You'll get yours on judgment day
(You'll get yours on judgment day)

Do you listen to your heartbeat ticking like a clock
We're living in a cold world maybe you forgot
Armageddon's hard-wired like it or not
You know the end is coming soon
If I'm fucked, so are you

Let's find out right now
Welcome to the end

I don't care about what they say
Everybody's sorry on judgment day

Nothing's gonna break me
I've got ice inside my veins
There's gotta be (be) a (a) better way
There's greatness in my DNA
When it all goes up in flames
You'll get yours on judgment day
