

Pray

I Prevail

Don't pray for me
Don't pray for me

You make me feel so fucking broken
Only the pain inside reminds me of myself
Cut me open, watch me bleed, no saving grace, no sympathy
Found salvation six feet deep, from you, I found nothing

Don't pray for me
Don't pray for me
Oh, savior of the broken, go save yourself instead
All your good intentions will kill us in the end
Don't fucking pray for me

Keep holding your breath, don't break the silence
With every word, you drag us further into Hell
Cut me open, watch me bleed, no saving grace, no sympathy
I found peace in misery, from you, I found nothing

Don't pray for me
Don't pray for me
Oh, savior of the broken, go save yourself instead
All your good intentions will kill us in the end
Don't fucking pray for me

Run away, back to the hole from which you came
Run away
Run away, out of touch and out of place
Run away, get the fuck out of my face

Don't pray for me
Don't pray for me
Oh, savior of the broken, go save yourself instead
All your good intentions will kill us in the end
Don't fucking pray
Don't fucking pray
Don't pray for me

For me
