

The Negative

I Prevail

I'm so sick and tired of the negative

I'm on the edge tonight
Closer to the ledge, you were right
Lost in my head tonight
Lost in my head tonight
I'm spinning in circles and I can't get out
Running from these thoughts that I can't say out loud

Well damn I guess you're the perfect person
Same day but a different version
Paint the picture but you don't deserve it
Color's fading underneath the surface
So wear black everywhere you go
No take backs at the end of the road
No last chance when the caskets closed
Your silence is worth more than gold

I'm so sick and tired of the negative
Black and white, you're right
I'm fucking over it
Patience is paper thin
And somethings gotta give
I'm so sick and tired of the negative

Time is running out
It's inescapable
Staring at the walls
Feel like an animal
You can't escape
You can't escape
You think I'm locked in here with you
You're here with me
And no one leaves
Time is running out
It's inescapable

I'm so sick and tired of the negative
Black and white, you're right
I'm fucking over it
Patience is paper thin
And somethings gotta give
I'm so sick and tired of the negative
Cause all my life I never knew
Why my mind was turning black, turning blue
But now I know
The colors don't bleed the same between me and you
Yeah

I've watched the whole world go insane
They convinced me I'm addicted to the pain
I need it
Like a moth drawn to a flame
We're too far gone to be saved
So go insane

Like a moth drawn to a flame

We're too far gone to be saved

I'm so sick and tired of the negative
Black and white, you're right
I'm fucking over it
