

Lost It

I See Stars

I think I've lost it
Along the way, I must've
I wonder if I'll find my way out
Of the Hell I'm lost in

Is it gonna be alright?
Is it gonna be alright?
Yeah, it's gonna be alright
This I repeat all night

Never thought I, never thought I
Never thought I would be this way
Oh, oh, oh, oh
I just want it here to stay
I just want it here to stay

I'm holding on
For my damn life
The little thread that breaks when I run out of lies
And now I'm in a hollow, hollow place again
Because I think I've lost it

Is it gonna be alright?
Is it gonna be alright?
Yeah, it's gonna be alright
But I'm gonna need all nine lives
I'm holding on
To the telephone line
And if I fall, I'll land like everything's alright
Everything's alright

Never thought I, never thought I
Never thought I would be this way
Oh, oh, oh, oh
I just want it here to stay
I just want it here to stay
Never thought I, never thought I
Never thought I would be this way
Oh, oh, oh, oh
I just want it here to stay
I just want it here to stay

My body is a glass window, if you look, you'd know
That the lights were never on
I'm trying not to blame myself for what's been going on My body is a glass window, and the lights are never on
And now they're flickering

I'm holding on
For my damn life
The little thread that breaks when I run out of lies

Never thought I, never thought I
Never thought I would be this way
I just want it, want it, want it
Here to stay
Why do I have to be this way

Never thought I, never thought I
Never thought I would be this way
Oh, oh, oh, oh
I just want it here to stay
I just want it here to stay

'Cause it's gonna be alright
Yeah, it's gonna be alright
Yeah, it's gonna be alright
But I'm gonna need all nine lives
Yeah, it's gonna be alright
It's gonna be alright
Yeah, it's gonna be alright
But I'm gonna need all nine lives
