Give Me Something

IAMDDB

Gotta give me something I can feel
Give me something I...

Give me something I can feel
Gotta give me something I can feel
Give me something I can feel

One by one it goes two by two
I got some wounds ever since I dealt with you
Feel it in my skin feel it in my whisper too
And I can find the room even if the room is full
And we can find the time even if the item can't soon
Fuck all the other times when we didn't know what was true
I feel it in my heart, feel it in my soul
Cannot let you go
Cannot let you go

Give me something I can feel
Give me something I can feel
Give me something I can feel
I can feel...

Bitches hate to see you win they hate you sometimes
You be talking so much shit but you ain't going far
I'd rather be a boss than be a sorry ass hoe
22 came sooner than I thought, oh lord
I got responsibilities I love, oh lord
Thank you for my momma on god my lord
Everything is love everything is calm
Everything comes right when its suppose to come

Give me something I can feel
Can feel
Can feel
Give me something I can feel
Ooh...
Give me something I can feel

They wanna see me fall but fuck em all, yea
I could never fall what you thought
Keep it G

Can feel
Can feel
I can feel
