Don't mess around Ima replace you
With money and power and bitches

Take your bitch, take your wife, take your business
Yeah yeah
Like who this little nigga pushing way up
I got mils to make you price that you can pay up

Like ooo, collecting on my pay checks
Like ooo, I can see you through my Ray Bans
Like ooo, oh you think, you think I'm thinking bout you
DDB could kill you once but Ima kill you twice yeah
Roll my weed, keep my bitch is a main plan
If you gon fuck with me you in it
We finesse it like
Yeah yeah, cut a throat
Maybe 2, maybe more
I don't really know but I gotta go
Operation, operation
Take your bitch on vacation
Don't need a hoe, I can't save you
They don't like what they tasting
No samples, no fake shit I can see you through the faces [?]

Purple rain in my blood
Got the feature, more like I'm the plug
You won't see me in the clubs
Wavy, wavy, wavy baby
I get careless, cautious and crazy
Give a fuck, you can never replace me
Even god can't save me
Neither Robb can save me
Neither Jeffery or Richard or Nathan
Cause I been moving crazy, yeah
Smoking daisies in my doobies, yeah
Is it the money, or is it the bitches
Either way I get both
Can't hit me up, you fuck with the snitches
Can you take it, take it, take it
You finna fake it till you make it
Cause I be on so much crud, finna make it

Like who this little nigga pushing way up
